

2020 Scholarship Program Application

Investing in the Future Generation of Southern California's Food Industry

FIBR is dedicated to supporting community and investing in the future of the Southern California Food Industry. We foster the next generation in a number of ways, including our work at Dorsey High School, where FIBR Sponsors the Dorsey Culinary Arts Speaker Series and makes an annual donation to help fund Culinary Student Uniforms. FIBR also serves on workforce development and academic committees including the Los Angeles Trade-Technical College Culinary Arts & Professional Baking Programs Advisory Committee.

The FIBR Scholarship Program awards Two (2) $500 Scholarships to benefit either a current FIBR Student member, additionally a Family Member or Employee of a FIBR Member Company in good standing. In addition to the cash award, the winners also receive a one-year Student level membership in FIBR and are recognized at the Annual Taste of FIBR Awards and Scholarship Ceremony-Virtual Event in 2020, that is held in the Fall during the month of October. Funding to support the scholarship fund is supported by this annual event.

Who is Eligible?

- Current FIBR Student Members, or any FIBR Member Employee or Dependent (Child or Grandchild). FIBR Member Company must be in good Standing.
- Currently Enrolled Students in a Food Science, Environmental Health or other Food Industry Related Field of Study at an accredited Vocational, Community College or University.
- Only Students presently residing in the United States are eligible. Those attending a local California academic institution receive priority consideration.
- Proof of a minimum 3.0 G.P.A. is required.

How to apply:

1. Complete the Attached Application form
2. Provide Proof of enrollment at an eligible academic institution as listed above
3. Provide Two Letter of Recommendation (One (1) from a teacher or professor; and One (1) from a personal character reference (Employer, Pastor, Colleague, Volunteer Organization etc).
